AGAIN—"SHOP EARLY."

A chance is offered to the public to "shop early" and at the same time to economize in doing so.

You may be in need, next winter, of some good blankets, and it will be well for you to examine your supply now and "stock up" if you find there is need for replenishing.

Senator Nat Dial has sent to Clerk of Court Chalg a sample of army blankets that are now being sold at .25 each, parcel post paid, through the government store in Washington. Mr. Craig will be glad to show this blanket to those interested in possible purchase.

Regarding the quality of these articles, Senator Dial states that they are absolutely new, clean government stock, and that the price of the material, bought through regular trade channels, would be about $1.00 to $1.25 a yard. The Senator does not know how long these articles will be on sale, nor does he say that they will be sold at the price of .25 each as long as the stock lasts. They are being sold at that price now, and that is as far as he can go in the matter of price.

If you are interested, call on Mr. Craig at the Court House and see if the blanket he has is what would suit your fancy. Then if you want to buy, send certified check or money order, made payable to Major W. B. Graham, Q.M.C., Army Retail Store, Liberty Hut, Washington, D. C. You should state in your letter that the English overcoating grade blanket is desired.

Local News from Fair Play.

Fair Play, May 17.—Special: Rev. Robinson filled his regular appointment at the Baptist church here Sunday morning. He preached an able sermon to a large congregation.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. McDavid and children, of Piedmont, were visitors at the home of A. R. Marett last week. They were en route to Washington, D. C., to attend the Southern Baptist Convention.

W. T. Dooley, of Anderson, was a business visitor here recently. His little grand-daughter, Miss Lois Leathers, accompanied him home for a week's visit.

The monthly meeting of the Home Demonstration Club was held Wednesday, May 12, at the school building. Miss Forney came with Miss Counts and gave an interesting demonstration on butter-making. We were glad to have as visitors the ladies of the South Union club. Mrs. Laurens Sheldon and Mrs. Rayford Harris were elected delegates to the summer term of demonstration clubs to be held at Winthrop June 3-12.

It seems that we are not going to have warm weather soon, as Jack Frost was seen in this section on last Sunday morning.

Miss Vera Marett, book-keeper for L. B. Marett, visited her parents near Townville last week-end.

We wish to invite Supervisor Foster to visit our section and inspect our roads, especially the Lavinia-Fair Play road, where so much time was spent last winter putting in a concrete wall. The bridge at this point is sadly in need of a back-bone or other substantial support, and the mud-hole just beyond that needs several loads of rock. Several trucks and touring cars have been stuck there recently. A word to the wise is sufficient, and we feel sure that this much-needed work will be done shortly.

Dr. W. C. Mays has been confined to his bed for a week. We hope soon to see him out again. Dr. W. W. Cornog, of Lavinia, Ga., has been attending some of his patients.

J. W. Mitchell and family, of Lavinia, were Sunday visitors here.

Only One Case this Week.

The case of the town of Walhalla vs. W. L. Slaton, charged with fighting, was the only one for hearing in Mayor's Court during the past week. The defendant pleaded guilty and was fined the sum of $5. The fine was paid.

Some Jumper, Bud.

(Commerce, Ga., News.)

That fellow Kelley, of Eastanolle, Stephens county, who won all the jumping premiums here last week, would put a bull-frog to shame when it comes to jumping. Given a few drinks of old-time Gumlog liquor, he would jump across the Tugaloo river and never grunt over it.

NEWS FROM BOUNTY LAND.

Community Kept Lively by Visitors and Interesting Gatherings.

Bounty Land, May 17.—Special: Mr. and Mrs. Math. Davis, of near Clemson, were in the community last week. Miss Sallie Davis accompanied them home for a few days' visit. Miss Clyde Smith, of the Seneca High School faculty, delighted the sixth and seventh grades with a picnic outing at her old home in this community Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Boyd, of Greenville, were late guests of the former's sister, Mrs. C. E. Gambrell.

Gilmer Hubbard spent the week-end with relatives in the Fairview section.

Mr. and Mrs. James Wright and three children, of Greenwood, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Wright.

Mrs. J. B. Pickett, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. D. Wright, returned to Sandy Springs Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Rankin and three children, of Townville, were guests Saturday of the former's mother, Mrs. R. N. Rankin.

Little Miss Ethel Rankin is to be congratulated on having given the best report as a member of the Tomato Club here. She will go as a delegate to the girls' short course at Winthrop.

William Moore and two children, of Seneca, were guests the first of the week of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Smith.

The children and grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Adams gathered at the Adams home Sunday to celebrate Mrs. Adams' birthday.

The B. Y. P. U. of this community will hold its meeting during the summer months on Sunday evenings instead of in the afternoons.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter McKie, of Anderson, were late guests of relatives here.

At the last meeting of our Improvement Association a contest on planning three meals for one day was an interesting feature. Mrs. D. A. Perritt won the prize, a mixing bowl, presented by Mrs. Stella Hopkins, who arranged the program for this meeting.

Murphree—Morgan.

A wedding of unusual interest to the people of Oconee and Pickens counties occurred at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Murphree, of the Wolf Stake section of Oconee, on Sunday, May 16th, at 5 o'clock p. m., the contracting parties being Miss Annie Mae Murphree and Harrison Morgan.

The bride was lovely in a gown of white beaded georgette, carrying a bunch of bride's roses. Her only jewelry was a string of pearls, a gift of the groom. She is very popular in the social life of the younger set as well as in her church and Sunday school, and is a young lady of many noble traits of character.

The groom is the only son of Mrs. Cynthia Morgan, of the New Hope section, and is a prosperous farmer and a young man of sterling habits.

The bride's attendants were Miss Ada Morgan and Ennis Abbott, Miss Ada Duckworth and Joe Murphree.

The guests were relatives of the bride and groom, who showed their love for them by presenting them with many useful and beautiful articles.

Immediately after the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. M. J. Stansell, pastor of the bride and groom, the guests were invited into the dining room, where a feast of good things to eat was spread. On the day following a sumptuous dinner was served at the home of the groom's mother.
